

October, 2013

Dear friends,

I am writing to inform you that after several years working in different posts in EASSE, I am leaving General Management to take the position of Honorary President of our Association.

Since we started working in 2005 on the defense and promoting of Single-Sex Education in Spain and throughout Europe, we have achieved important progress. We have succeeded in promoting and organizing four international congresses in Barcelona, Rome, Warsaw and Lisbon. Various working groups have been set up in different areas since then.

EASSE also played a major role in attending international congresses organized by the main worldwide associations whose aims are similar to ours. One of the most important highlights was organizing the Lisbon Congress this year. For the first time in history we were able to bring all the Managers of the main Single-Sex associations together at a round table.

In the last few years we have developed a new Web Site and we are doing our utmost to make sure that EASSE is well known all over the World. Towards this goal, our immediate objective is to ensure the successful running of our next EASSE Congress, which will take place in London in Spring of 2015.

From now on, Ricardo Gay Ferriz will be in charge of General Management. We have been working together since 2008, and have had an especially close working relationship since 2011. I will continue to collaborate with him in any way possible. Ricardo has the benefit of having been headmaster of four different schools, as well as being involved in promoting several international projects. He is also a passionate advocate of Single-Sex education.

I would like to thank everybody for the help and collaboration they have given to EASSE and I urge you most sincerely to keep up the good work on behalf of Single-Sex education.

Yours faithfully,

Josep Maria Barnils Domingo
